My kids and I enjoyed this so much, thank you. Hope this world championships brings us a new game.. Fun overall, hard game to make fun ill say that. Graphics suck but fun overall 7/10. Someone should improve the controls because on the positioning doesnt work hwhen im playing high jump and they only work on when i do racing mode..

This reminds me of a cross between Epix Summer Games and some Konami game I had on the Gameboy.

It's not perfect by any means but the range of events is quite wide and there are far more than you first realise - various kinds of cycling, swimming, jumping, running, and throwing stuff. You win shiny things, and break records and your keyboard.

It ran smoothly for me and some of the events had a bit of a learning curve. It suffers from some lazy moments \(did it have to be rushed out for the Beijing Olympics, I wonder?\) but is basically fun.

It's certainly not presented in '3D comic style' - more 'trying to be real but not quite getting there because we don't have the money' style. Nor is it worth \u00a315.99 - get it on sale. Until then, watch me butcher it!. It's a very fun olympic game if your into sports i recommend it. The graphics aren't the best but it works. There is one problem though, of you press the windows button it automatically exits out of the game.. I want a refund because the game was fun but after a couple day all of the events didnt work like when I tried any jump events the keys would not work. So You all need to fix it.. I am a pole vaulter for Texas Tech University. I bought the game, went straight to the pole vault event, brought in all of my roommates, \(who are also my teammates,\) and we sat down and did a decathlon. Never before have I seen all of my roommates so excited to try and outdo each other as much as when I bought this.

We got a noise complaint.

And I'm pretty sure the 800m runner broke a blood vessel trying to win the 400.

So basically it was a pretty productive day.
